Newmarket, Friday June 12th, 1857.

General Summary.

Wild Pigeons have been very plentiful in this section of country during the past ten days. They are very wild, however, and difficult to kill.

Kettleby Division S. of T. purpose holding a Temperance Festival in the Grove near the Division Room, on the 20th inst. They generally have a large party and a good one.—See advertisement.

The chartered Banks of the Province have given notice that on and after the 1st of January next, their business will be transacted in dollars and cents instead of pounds, shillings and pence as at present.

It will be seen by referring to our advertising columns, that the next Conference of the Christian Denomination will take place in Newmarket, on the 18th and 19th inst. Services will be preached every evening from Thursday to Sunday inclusive, at 7 o'clock.

We regret that we were misinformed in regard to time of the Meeting of King Council, as it was our intention to be present. The Council met on Saturday last. If Township Clerks would drop us a line a day or two previous, it would save much trouble, and give the people an opportunity to be present.

The Agriculturist for June is a capital number, containing interesting articles on the Cattle Plague, Breeding, Insects, Farm-Yard Manure, Grap Culture, &c. &c. Another sheet of the transactions of the Board of Agriculture accompanies this number. Every farmer should take it: only 2s 6d per annum.—Wm. McDougall, Esq., Proprietor and Editor.

We regret to learn that Mr. Joseph Flory, of King, was robbed, by a servant girl in his employ, on Sunday last the 7th inst., while the family were away to church. It appears she broke open a large chest with an axe, and took away money, notes, and du-bills to a considerable amount. Up to last account she had evaded the search of the officers of law.

Since the above was put in type we learn the girl has been apprehended in Toronto, and that was but the accomplice of two notorious villains.

We are not exactly posted as to whose duty it is to keep the Town Line in repair east of Newmarket Station; but judging from the fact that the people of East Gwillimbury take great care of the road allowance on the Town Line, we presume it belongs to that Township. Whoever has it to attend to, we must say, the road is in a shocking state, and should receive immediate attention.

We are pleased to learn that our friend R. Moore, Esq., has passed his Examinations in a manner alike creditable to himself and the profession he has chosen. Mr. Moore is well known to many in this part of the country, and this intelligence will no doubt be pleasing and satisfactory. His card will be found on our first page of office in the New Court House, Toronto.

TESTIMONIAL to a CLERGYMAN.—The Congregations of St. Paul's Newmarket, Christ's Church, Holland Landing, Trinity Church, Aurora, have recently expended nearly one hundred pounds on a Barn, and have also added a Room to the Parsonage attached to the Mission of the Rev. S. S. Ramsay, M. A. This is the second testimonial received by him within the space of four years; the former one was of the value of sixty pounds.

Mr. RAMSEY has been connected with the Church in this country during the last twenty years; eleven years in England as Secretary to the Upper Canada Branch of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel; and for nine years as Missionary in this Province.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

On Wednesday last His Excellency Sir Edmund Head proceeded in state to the Parliament Buildings, and assented to a large number of Bills in Her Majesty's name. In all, 227 Acts have been added to our Statute Book, the largest proportion of which are private measures and bills to incorporate Towns and Villages. On the occasion His Excellency delivered the following—

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council,

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

When I opened this session of the Legislature I recommended to your special consideration certain subjects, on which, in your addresses, you assured me you were ready to deliberate. On the present occasion at the close of the session, it was my pleasure to thank you for the manner in which you have fulfilled these assurances, and for the labour which you have bestowed on the general business of the Province.

Every one of the matters which I ventured to submit to you has been dealt with by the wisdom of Parliament.

The state of our Prisons and Lunatic Asylums—the Administration of the Law in Lower Canada—the improved organization of the Civil Service—the encouragement of Arts an Agriculture—and the welfare of the Indian Tribes—all these have become the subject matter of fresh legislation.

You have not failed to show your impartial zeal for the progress of the Province, and for the increase of settlement in every direction. The valleys of the Ottawa and the St. Maurice, and our western frontier towards the territory of the Hudson's Bay Company, have alike received consideration at your hands.

I earnestly hope that our efforts on all these important subjects may be crowned with success.

Design will be promptly and effectually carried out by the agency of the servants of the Queen.

In submitting to the decision of her most Gracious Majesty the final choice of a Seat of Government for Canada, you have done that which, without derogating from the rights of the Colonial Parliament, will remove from its walls a constant source of heart-burden and local jealousy.

By generously postponing your leave on the Grand Trunk Railway, you will, I conceive, infuse new vigour into an association the interests of which are inseparably connected with those of United Canada; I, myself, view with much satisfaction the complete separation of the Executive Government from the direction of a commercial body.

Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

In the Queen's name I thank you for the supplies which you have liberally granted for her service.

The additional appropriation for the Ocean Steamer will give a fresh impulse to the trade of the St. Lawrence, and the power given me to meet the overtures of the Imperial Government for the better lighting of the Gulf will tend to promote the same important object.

By your votes in aid of the Militia you have responded to the zeal and loyalty of the people, and you appear to admit the fact that the growing importance of Canada demands a military organization of your own, in some degree at least corresponding to the position which you hold.

I rejoice that you have repealed the anomalous tax for the support of Lunatic Asylums in Upper Canada, and that you have appropriated a sum which may be applied for improving our communications with the Red River.

Honorable Gentlemen and Gentlemen:

I am bold enough to believe that the experience of the present session in the working of the Legislative Council, composed, as it now is, partly of those named by the Crown, and partly those chosen by the people, gives strong assurance of ultimate success. The test is, I know, as yet imperfect but from what I already see, I anticipate with confidence the continued action among you of a second Legislative body capable in itself of calm deliberation, firm in its loyalty to our Sovereign, and strong in the consciousness of popular support.

My earnest prayer is that Providence may bless the produce of your lands and the increase of your trade, and that our people, whilst rejoicing in the full measure of prosperity, may be kept from those sources of rash speculation and improvidence which sometimes attend on such a state of things.

Once more, I thank you for your diligence in the work of Legislation, and I release you from such work for the present by pro-posing the Parliament.

The Speaker of the Legislative Council then said:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly:

It is his Excellency the Governor General's will and pleasure, that this Provincial Parliament be prorogued until Monday the Twentieth day of July next, to be held here, and this Provincial Parliament is accordingly prorogued until Monday, the Twentieth day of July next.

A Pennsylvanian Opinion.

The following article we clip from a neat paper entitled the American Watchman, published at Lock Haven, Pa., and serves to give an idea of what strangers think of us. Bearing the paragraph in reference to Newmarket eventually becoming the Seat of Government of this Province, our contemporary's remarks are quite correct. We do however expect it will shortly become the County Town of North York, one of the most respectable, wealthy, intelligent and industrious Counties in the country.

Never having had the good fortune to travel in the Keystone State, we are unable to speak of Lock Haven as our contemporary can of Newmarket; but one thing we do know, Canadian settlers from that part of the Great Republic are reckoned among our best citizens.

Here is the article referred to from the Watchman:—

CANADA.

Many of our people are inclined to look upon this new and growing country as of small importance, or some out of the way semi-barbarous country, where the people live in shanties and upon the flesh of Seals, Dogs &c. This is a great mistake.

He delects not the least resemblance to a Scotchman, but very much like a "down-easter" or a native of the New England States. He gives his School teacher the credit of imparting a language without a brogue; and says he has had no chance to defend himself; neither did he know for what he was arrested, until he saw it in print. Gave himself no uneasiness about his situation at the time—knowing he had not committed any act offensive to the law.

It must be admitted he has but a poor chance to defend himself, if he is (as he says) in a strange land, without money or acquaintances, and in chains, which makes his very appearance repulsive, and where prejudice is wrought to the highest pitch against him.

He is a man of medium height and well proportioned. I saw no scar on his face, as he has been represented. Several parties who knew Townsend have failed to positively identify him. I would suggest that those able to identify him should spare no time in seeing the prisoner so as to accuse his accuser if innocent, or bring him to justice if the culprit.

MAXSON JONES.

Toronto, June 10, 1857.

To the Editor of the New Era.

DEAR SIR,—I have this day visited the Gaol here to see the reputed "notorious Townsend." He arrived at Toronto yesterday by the Great Western Railroad. He talks freely and fluently when not crossed; but when irritated his look like the touch of the Torpedo. He pretends to be a native of Scotland and emigrated to Canada in 1819, since which time he has been in the "diggings" in California.

His dialect has not the least resemblance to a Scotchman, but very much like a "down-easter" or a native of the New England States. He gives his School teacher the credit of imparting a language without a brogue; and says he has had no chance to defend himself; neither did he know for what he was arrested, until he saw it in print. Gave himself no uneasiness about his situation at the time—knowing he had not committed any act offensive to the law.

I would suggest that those able to identify him should spare no time in seeing the prisoner so as to accuse his accuser if innocent, or bring him to justice if the culprit.

MAXSON JONES.

Toronto, June 10, 1857.

To the Editor of the New Era.

MR. BURTON.—I presume you must have heard the gossip which has been so liberally scattered among the citizens, by the Young Ladies, (including some of the elder ones, who would wish to class themselves among the youthful,) respecting the respectability of the Young Men of Newmarket, which has cost them no small amount of labour that the public might be thoroughly apprised of the existence of such characters. But I would ask in behalf of the Young Men of Newmarket, "To what end is this?" What have they accomplished? I answer, nothing but the disarray of their own respectability; for the young men are ready at any call to produce as respectable references as those very praiseworthy young ladies who would be so happy to vilify their character. Now Mr. Editor, perhaps it will be satisfactory to your readers as well as yourself, to state why this tale of talk has made its appearance in our midst. It is believed to have its source among a few young ladies whose unamiable tempers and dispositions will not allow, or rather exclude them from the society of the young men. For Temple—in fact the building was so filled that many strangers were unable to gain admittance. At the conclusion of the service, a procession was formed, headed by the Sharon Band, and the whole assemblage marched from the Temple to the regular place of meeting, where a feast was truly provided. Everything in first-rate order, with waiters kind and obliging. We understood that upwards of 500 partook of refreshments on that occasion.

Mr. Wilson, although having withheld the shocks of time for several years over the number allotted to man, appeared active, and preaches still with much energy and force. The festival as a whole was very successful; and when we consider that it was not attended with the evils of which the members of that body so strongly complained last year, we doubt not it proved gratifying and satisfactory.

After the Refreshments had been served, the band played a number of stirring and spirited airs and the company separated.

Old Men in old Times.

MODERN DEGENERACY.

Modern luxury is not favorable to long life. In the patriarchal era, if translators of the scriptures are correct in their interpretations of the Mosaic measurement of time, an ancient Hebrew was quite a youth at the age of a century or so, and could scarcely be considered settled for life before he had reached his second centennial epoch. Now, however, a man is venerable at fifty, and although Old Parr saw his 159th birthday, and the census occasionally brings a centenarian to light, seventy is usually the extreme limit of human existence.

The fact is, we moderns eat too much, drink too much, loaf too much, and work too little.

We spoil our stomachs with over indulgence, and the result is impure blood, vitiated se-cretions, a disordered system, and premature decay. The root of half the fatal diseases of the race is dyspepsia, a complaint unknown, it is presumed, in the days of Moses and the pro-phet, when turtle soup, terrapin stew, rich peas and chaygne were unfeasted.

Amusement.

WITTY AND WISE.—Doctor, do you think tight living is bad for consumption? Not at all; it is what it lives on.

A gentleman having lately been called on to subscribe to a course of lectures declined, "because," said he, "my wife gives me a lecture every night for nothing."

He that marries for beauty alone is like buyer's of cheap furniture—the varnish that caught the eye will not endure the fire-side blaze.

WITTY.—That was a capital toast given by a Yankee at the celebration. "The locomotive—the only good motive for riding a man on a rail."

Well, Sambo, how do you like your new place?—O, very well, master.—What did you have for breakfast this morning?—Why, you see, missis biled tree eggs for herself, and give me breakfast!

An Irish drummer who indulged too freely, was accosted by the General at review: "What makes your nose so red?" "Please your honor," said Pat, "I always blush when I speak to an officer."

The following question is now before the Tillietottem debating society:—"Is it wrong to cheat a lawyer?" It is expected that the answer will be—"No; but impossible!"

A young lady having given a gentleman, who was not very remarkable for his taste in dress, a playful slap on the face, he called out, "You have made my eye smart." "Indeed!" said she. "Well, I am happy to have been the cause of making something smart about you."
